HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS. HOOFLAND'S

GERMAN TONIC

The great Remedies for all Diseases of the LIVER, STOMACH, OR DIGESTIVE Hoofland's German Bitters

Is composed of the nure jules (or, as they are med leinally of Roots, Herbs and preparation, highly and entirely free dintziure of any kind.

HUOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC, is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with the purest quality of Santa (Yruz Rum, Orange, &c., making one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedles ever offered to the public.

Those preferring Medicine free from Alcoholic admixture, will use

Hoofland's German Bitters. Those who have no objection to the com-ination of the Bitters, as stated, will use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC. They are both equally good, and contain the same medicinal virtues, the choice be een the two being a mere matter of taste

Suriers from several or more of the following diseases:

Constipation Flatulence, Inward Piles Fulness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fulness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Moking or Buffocating Sensations when in a Lying Fosture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Dull Fain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Fiesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil, and Great Depression of Spiris. The sufferer from these diseases should excess the season of the greatest cantion in the season.

The sufferer from these disenses should exercise the greatest caution in the selection of a remedy for his only that which he investigations and true merit, is skill inquiries, possesses fully compounded, is free from injurious ingredients, and has established for itself a reputation for the cure of these diseases: In this connection we would submit those well-known remediate—

Hoofiand's German Bitters,

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC. Thirty-five years since they we:e first introduced into this country from Germany, during which time they have undoubtedly performed more cures, and benefitted suffering humanity to a greater extent, than any other remedies known to the public.

These remedies will effectually cure Liver Complaint, Jaundiee, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Disease of the Kid see arising from a Disordered Liver, Stomach or Intes. DEBILITY.

DEHILITY.

Recalling from any Causes whatever; PROSTRATION OF THE SYSTEM, induced by Severe Labor, Hardships, Exposure, Fevers, &c.

There is no medicine extant equal to these remedles in such cases. A tone and vigor is imparted to the whole system; the appetite is strengthened, food is enjoyed, the stomach digests properly, the blood is purified, the complexion becomes sound and healthy, the yellow tinge is eradicated from the eves, a blown is given to the checks and the weak and nervous invaild becomes astrong and healthy being.

PERSONN ADVANCED IN LIFE.

PERSONS ADVANCED IN LIFE, And feeling the hand of time weighing heavily upon them, with all its attendant ills, will find in the use of this BITTERS, or the TONIC, an elixir that will instill new lite into their voins, restore in a measure the energy and ardor of more youthful days, build up their shranken forms, and give health and happiness to their remaining years.

NOTICE. it is a well established fact that fully it." They are languid, devoid of all

To this class of persons the BITTERS, the TONIC, is especially recommended. WEAK AND DELICATE CHILDREN Are made strong by the use of either of these remedies. They will cure every case of MARASAUS, without fall.

Thousands of certificates have accumulated in the hands of the proprietor, but space will allow of the publication of but a few. Those, it will be observed, are men of note, and of such standing that they must be believed.

Mon. George W. Woodward, PHILADELPHIA, March 16, 1867.

"I find Hoofiand's German Bitters' is a good tonic, use the digestive orbenefit in cases of debility, and want of nervous action in the system.

WE shall be heartily rejoiced,-and Cuban business is ended. We have the same dreary bulletins from day to day about men with unpronounceable names doing little or nothing at unpronounceable places, which are not to be found on the map; and if any of our readers can tell how the "cause" progresses, it is more than we can. We wish the insurrectionists well, but should really rejoice if something would get the matter of the Havana and Key West cable just for a few days.

Though after the event it may be regretted that such proceedings were lawful, it is most certain they were not unlawful; but it would have been better for both countries if the government had seized the Alabama. The justifiability of this step was doubtful, but the refusal to the offence which England committed and which she is ready to submit to any tribunal as soon as the Americans desire.

The steamers City of Paris, Malta and Hibernia arrived out.

Prospects of the Church Bill in the had no money and could not accept McCoole's offer, and asked fair play. The men then went to work with the following result:

First Round—The men approached each other cautiously, but with confidence. A few exchanges and then hasty hitting at close quarters. Finally McCoole planted a heavy blow near Allen's eye, knocking him down. First knock down and first blood claimed for McCoole, although blood appeared on both their faces, Second Round—Terrific blows in rapid succession, on each other's face, rapid succession, on each other's face, resulting finally in favor of McCoole. Third Round—The men eyed each other with the ferocity of gladiators, and after severe blows, they clinched and fell together. The struggle caused intense excitement, and McCoole's friends realized that the glant had met a man worthy of his steel.

Fourth Round—McCoole came to the scratch with his face bleeding profusely from a terrific gash under his right eye. Allen fought cautiously, evident eye. Allen fought cautiously, evidently husbanding his strength. McCoole got in heavily on Allen's ribs, the latter went down to avoid another knocklown. The wildest excitement now began to prevail at the seeming change in the prospect of the fight.

Fifth Round,—Heavy fighting throughout: there were desperate exchanges, during which Tom, administered two or three blows in Mike's face which seemed to be a mass of blood from forehead to chin; he had terrible gashes under both eyes and his face terribly disfigured; the combatants clenched and after a desperate struggle both down together near the ropes; the round was decidedly in favor of Allen. Sixth Round—Heavy hitting, Allen seemed the freshest of the two and looked very complacent, dancing around his opponent with ease. After some sharp hitting the round resulted in his favor.

Seventh Round—McCoole presented a forlorn appearance and was not very rapid in responding to time. Allen looked fresh and cheerful. After some exchanges of not a very satisfactory character to McCoole, Allen decided to go to grass in order to escape another of those terrific blows from the Giant's sledge-hammer.

Eight Round—The backers of Mc-Coole urged him to make short work of his opponent, but in vain, for the prestige of the giant was rapidly being demolished before the superior skill and tactics of his antagonist. Mike struck out wildly with his right but missed his mark, his opponent lighting on his potato trap with terrible effect. Its declarations are clear and unequivocal. It admits that the necessity for disfranchisement no longer exists, that the recent decision of the Supreme Court of Tennessee has shorn the disfranchising clauses of the State Constitution of much of their strength, and that for the the restrictive policy, when the party everywhere else opposes it, is mischievous and ridiculous. The Governor winds up with a declaration of renewed faith in the Republican organization, and a reprobation of both the policy and practice of the Democratic party.
